STREETS TO BE LIGHT

NEARLY 1,000 ADDITIONAL ELECTRIC LIGHTS TO BE PLACED.

RED AND WHITE AT STORES

Purple and Yellow Decorations Used at St. Joseph Will Be Used on the Streets.

Maryville's downtown streets are to be placed in first class condition for the street fair, from October 9 to 14, and decorations and a number of electric lights will be used that week. At a meeting of the committee Thursday evening it was decided that streamers of electric lights be used for eight blocks. Each one will contain twenty lights, and there will be six streamers to a block. With all of these lights the downtown portion of the city will be as light as in the daytime.

The streets where the lights will be used will be around the square, a block west on Third street, a block south on Main, a block north on Main, and a block west on Fourth.

In decorating the streets it was decided that the colors of purple and yellow will be used for street decorations, as all of the decorations and pennants necessary can be secured from the St. Joseph horse and stock show management. The St. Joseph show is next week. All of the store decorations are to be red and white.

Another donated to the public wedding that is to take place during fair week. J. A. Kavanaugh of Graham, who is the owner of an automobile, said Friday morning that he would bring any couple that lives near Graham to Maryville and back on that day if they will be married at the fair. This is equal to a gift of $8.

All of the free attractions for the fair have been secured except a few. The list of the attractions will be published in the next day or so.

ABOUT THAT PETRIFIED STORY IN PAPERS

(Skidmore New Era.)

Nearly every paper of Northwest Missouri the last three weeks has contained one or more articles describing the wonderful three-foot petrified alligator which was unearthed in a rock quarry near Graham, on a high piece of ground, 100 yards or more from any branch, creek or river. Just how the saurian reptile, hundreds of years ago, came to leave its home in the warm and sunny swamps of Florida and became a wanderer on the bleak hills of Northwest Missouri, the writers of the stories have not attempted to tell us; all they know is that the poor petrified form was dug up from its quiet resting place in a rock quarry near Graham.

The truth of the story is this: A few days ago some workmen, near Graham, did dig up a rock which in form somewhat resembled, to the imaginary mind, a young alligator, and then after applying a little paint for eyes, nostrils and some coloring for the back it made a fairly good specimen for a petrified crocodile, and this is the way the story started.

You have no doubt all read the little poem of "The Three Black Crows," describing the awful predicament of the man who "threw up" the three black crows. But on investigation it was found that a man did "throw up" something which his neighbors said was as black as a crow. It is wonderful how things grow by being told a few times.

MISS MARY NOBLE DIED IN KANSAS

Miss Mary Noble, daughter of Judge M. D. Noble, who formerly lived in the Platte river community east of Maryville, died at the family home in Coleridge, Kan., Thursday morning.

A telegram was received Thursday evening by John G. Grems of this city from Judge Noble, announcing his daughter's death, and saying that he and his daughter, Miss Hattie Noble, would arrive in Maryville with the body Saturday noon. Burial will take place in Miriam cemetery following their arrival. Their old friends and acquaintances are requested to meet them here.

For the injuries he received he asks for $2,000.

HANGING TO STRAPS

A DIFFICULT FEAT WHEN THERE ARE NO STRAPS.

THE ROAD TO COLUMBIA

Students at University Found the Way Was Long and the Going Bad.

Why is a strap hanger? He isn't when he trusts himself to the tender mercies of the Wabash, because the straps, they ain't.

When Maryville's rearguard left for Columbia to attend the university they first purchased tickets and then boarded the train. When the conductor came through he took each ticket, punched it five times and then handed it back. All along the way other students boarded the train until by the time Brunswick was reached the car was packed with passengers and wedged in between and piled on top were suitcases, bandboxes, shoeboxes, umbrellas and various sundry articles.

Every one was chased off the train at Brunswick, and before the last passengers were off some men came into the rear end of the car with brooms and actually began to sweep out the dirt. In about thirty minutes the train from Kansas City pulled in and a grand rush was made to board it, as it was already crowded to the extent of about three persons for every seat. The jam caused by the efforts of all to be the first one on the train was a hat smashing, side punching, face scratching time. A very simple method of making headway under such conditions is as follows: Make a quarter turn toward the big man who is trying to crowd past you, and give him several vicious jabs in the shortribs with your elbow. While he is collecting his thoughts slip your suitcase in front of his knees and then with a ratchet motion of the arms start forward by raising first one foot and then the other and setting it down in front of the one left behind. If the man's corns are tender progress is simpler and much more rapid.

Once inside the car the art of strap hanging was put to shame. All those who possessed such an article as a hooked nose, prominent chin or strong teeth could very easily and comfortably suspend themselves from the chandeliers so long as they lasted. After that the only alternative was to stand on someone else's feet, only someone else generally did the standing. A small number of experienced university men tried to browbeat the porter into letting them into the parlor car, but were unsuccessful. They were joined by the professional grouch, who howled about his rights, first class ticket, and a test case, and whose anger knew no bounds when a fair, winsome miss walked boldly into the said car while the porter kowtowed, scraped and rushed to carry her baggage through the crowded day coach for her.

The tickets were again taken up, punched twice, and again handed back. At Moberly a number succeeded in getting seats, but the packing soon became worse, if such were possible.

The last stage of the journey was begun after a wait of some fifteen minutes in Centralia on the far-famed train which, as has been said of it, "is so ashamed of itself that it backs into Columbia." With three more vicious punches of the tickets they were taken away from us forever, and by jumps and jerks our destination was reached at 8:30 p. m. Here the crowd broke up, the old ones hurrying at once to their lodgings and the new ones wandering nervously around until piloted away by friends or unsympathizing sophs.

The Maryville fans who are planning to attend the Missouri-Kansas game at Columbia may place their bets on the Tigers with a feeling of certainty not felt in former years. Tuesday, Sept. 19, there were fifty-three candidates for the Missouri eleven in practice on Rollins field, and they show themselves the best material from which to pick a team, seen in many years. Coach Brewer is wading right into the work and driving his men to the full extent, and they should be whipped into shape in a very short time.—Herschel Colbert.

Mrs. J. King and daughter, Isabel, of Devil's Lake, N. D., who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Kirch and family, went to Clyde Friday to visit her brother, Fred Kroutch, and old friends before returning to their home. Mrs. King and Mrs. Kirch returned a few days ago from a visit at Louisiana, Mo., with their sister.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Shopping Party at "Dick's."

A shopping party in D. E. Hotchkin's variety store Friday morning attracted a good deal of attention. Artists, and some other folks, maybe, would have said it was a picturesque company, and so it would have been viewed at a distance. But, lawsy, up within a foot or two it was a bunch of sixteen raw, greasy, smelly Indians, dressed in gay, gaudy Indian fashion, buying thread, colored glasses, and chuckling and nudging one another occasionally at some bright trinket that pleased them or soberly grunting with satisfaction when they found what they wanted. Chief Iron Tail was along with the crowd, and was the grimest, most dignified looking one of the lot. He didn't look pleased about anything None of the old Indians did. Mr. Hotchkin and his assistants had all they could do while their visitors were there, moving quickly and silently about and picking up everything they admired. One Indian consented to talk a little and give the names of those with him, and spelled them out if the name was not understood. His name is Johnnie Mixlong. He said, "The big tall fellah in brown, he's name is One Horse. He our inter—p-re-ta." The other are Bennie Makinhorse, Summa Back, Edward Eagle Elk, Sam Mable, Iskey Two Dog, Willie Poor Bear, Eagle Bear, Shod Bear, Eagle Bull, Running Bear, Sam Lone Bear, Strike Plenty, Iron White Man and Chief Iron Tail."

Johnnie Mixlong was asked: "Where is your home?"

"Pine Ridge, in ee Black Heels, Sou Dakota," he replied.

"What do you do?"

"I cowboy."

"How many cattle do you care for?"

"Sousand. Sometimes sree sousand."

"What do you do in Buffalo Bill's show?"

"I jump, I holler, I run, I ride horse."

"You just make believe you are on the warpath?"

"Yeh."

"Did you ever go on the warpath in real earnest?"

"Yeh."

"Did you ever kill anybody?"

"Were you glad about it?"

"Yeh."

"Would yo go on the warpath again?"

"No."

"Why?"

"I go church fourteen year."

"What church do you belong to?"

"Presapateerean."

Then Dick Hotchkin said:

"You are all right. That's what I am."

"My brother is Epeescopelian and my sisters they Baptees," said Johnnie.

"Where did you go to school?"

"No school."

"Who taught you to read and write and speak English?"

"White cowboy."

"Do you like to travel with Buffalo Bill?"

"Yes. I see things."

Johnnie Mixlong had evidently been studying the up-to-date girl's coiffure and millinery. He had his hair in biscuit rolls by his ears, and two strands of silver and white beads were laid gracefully across his Madonna parted hair, while the long fringe ends of the strands were wound around his ears with telling effect. It was beautiful, girls! At the back of his head, at the proper angle, was a huge bunch of brilliantly colored tail feathers, fastened on somehow, and nodding and nodding bewitchingly, so that his profile was exactly like the new bonnet hats that poke out behind and are on display in the upest millinery stores. And he had on the most exquisitely bead embroidered moccasins and leggings you ever saw.

Dew Drop Inn Club.

The Dew Drop Inn club met Wednesday, Sept. 20, at the home of Mrs. Oliver Jones, north of the city. In spite of the inclemency of the weather a very profitable and enjoyable meeting was held. Papers were read on the "Rural School Problem" and "What Should Be Done for Betterment of Our Schools?" also "How Create an Interest in the Work," followed by a discussion by the members. Mrs. Claud Moore, Mrs. Harry Farrar, Mrs. Albert Orme, Mrs. Elmer Baker and the hostess, Mrs. Oliver Jones, were the members present. One visitor was present, Mrs. Culbertson of Maryville, and the children were Masters Kermit Moore and Wendell Jones, Misses Mildred and Velma Jones. Luncheon was served by the hostess, and the club adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Charles Stafford.

Picnic and Basket Dinner.

Her Daughter's Birthday.

Mrs. R. G. Sanders has issued invitations for Saturday afternoon to a party in celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Marian.

A WEDDING DRESS OVER 100 YEARS OLD

A wedding dress skirt that is now 110 years old, is on display in the window of the Eversole dry goods store, by Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker. The dress was worn by Mrs. Shoemaker's grandmother, whose maiden name was Jemima Wykoff of New York, who was the greataunt of Mrs. Horace F. Leet of this city. Jemima Wykoff spun and wove the beautiful white material of her wedding gown and embroidered it. It is a full round skirt of four widths. The deep embroidery seems to be the pattern of an acorn, and is so finely done that not a thread of it can be detected on the under side.

Jemima Wykoff was married to John O'Hara, a descendant of General O'Hara, who was detailed by Lord Cornwallis to deliver his sword to General George Washington on his surrender to the American army. Lord Cornwallis was too deeply stung by the defeat of the English army, it is said by historians, to do the job himself. Four men of the O'Hara family married four women of the Wykoff family. Jemima O'Hara died twenty years ago at the of 90 years.

30,000 BUSHELS ON THE GRISBY PLACE

The Skidmore New Era says this week of a big apple deal that was consummated last week:

A big apple deal was consummated Friday whereby W. M. Howard purchased the entire crop of apples grown this year on the W. W. Grigsby 110-acre orchard, estimated at 30,000 bushels.

This is the largest and one of the best orchards in the county or this part of the state. The varieties are among the best sellers on the market, and the quality cannot be surpassed in the entire state. Some of the leading varieties in this orchard have been pronounced by expert apple men to be the best block of apples they have seen this year, if not the best they ever saw any year.

EAR OF CORN 28 ROWS WITH 1600 GRAINS

J. W. Linville of Skidmore has an ear of corn from his farm, near that town, that has twenty-eight rows and 1,600 grains. Mr. Linville has some good corn and his crop this year will be a good one. J. W. Holt, who lives near Maryville, has an ear of corn that has 1,300 grains, and he wanted to know if anyone could beat it in the county. Linville's corn takes the record so far.

Known by Their Company.

It is an undisputed fact that a young man is known by the company he keeps. This is just as true of the young boy, for the company the boy seeks shows what the young man is very apt to be unless something should happen to turn him in another direction. It is not necessary that the company should be rich and finely dressed, or live in a fine house; because the boy that has to "shift for himself," and often for others, is many times the best of his kind, if he shifts the right way. A clean moraled boy, thoughtful and earnest and desiring to make the most of himself must not choose low, immoral or idle boys for companions. If you reach up, you will be able to climb.

Miss Maud Hubbell and Miss Birda Daniels of Barnard were in Maryville Friday to attend the show.

CROWDS FOR SHOW

EARLY TRAINS FRIDAY BROUGHT LARGE NUMBERS OF PEOPLE.

NO STREET PARADE GIVEN

Buffalo Bill's Farewell Tour Meets Enthusiastic Welcome From This Section.

Several thousand people from the country and towns surrounding Maryville were attracted to the city today by Buffalo Bill's wild west and Pawnee Bill's far east. All of the morning trains were jammed, and then the coaches could not hold the crowd.

No street parade was given this morning by the show, but many were heard to say that in view of the fact that there was no parade the crowds on the street between 10 and 12 o'clock were much larger than they had expected.

On the occasion of his retirement Col. Cody has made almost exhaustive efforts to present an entertainment of extraordinary merit, combining a world's story.

Buffalo Bill's wild west and Pawnee Bill's far east in combination contain more singular specialized talent and a greater number of strange diversified human exhibits in healthy, yet native, natural and interesting actions than was ever before presented in a single performance to an audience at one time.

STREET OPENING TO COMMENCE SOON

City Engineer F. L. Flint and Engineer Murphy, representing the Wabash, were measuring and laying off Ninth street Friday. The new street is to go to the Normal property and will connect with a road there which goes to the building. Work on the opening of this street will commence in a few days. The street has been badly needed for some time, and the news that it will be opened soon will be well received.

Came From Illinois.

Mrs. S. Wilson of Stronghurst, Ill., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening on a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Green. This is the first visit these sisters have had together in fourteen years.

Clearmont People in Town.

The President told the people at Grand Rapids why he vetoed the tariff bills. He says he is for tariff revision but not yet. He says in effect that although the constitution makes it the duty of Congress to prepare and pass tariff bills, and notwithstanding the fact that Congress has been doing this for a hundred years, it is not now capable of doing this work. He has appointed a bunch of clerks to get up one "scientifically," and it must be scientific before he will sign it. The President could have saved words by saying he doesn't intend to sign any bill that lowers the duties on protected articles.

MEMORIAL TOWER FOR CLEVELAND

A beautiful tower, without doubt the finest of its kind in this country, is soon to be erected within the grounds of the University of Princeton, N. J., as a tribute to the memory of the late Grover Cleveland.

The movement to erect this memorial, and the collection of the funds necessary to complete it, was under the leadership of ex-Senator John F. Dryden, a man of broad sympathies and patriotism, who, while of opposite political faith, is a great admirer of the many virtues of Mr. Cleveland. An official report shows $107,175.43 to have been collected by public subschiptions for this work.

The design of the tower, as now decided upon, is the eleventh or twelfth submitted by the architect, the details having been worked over again and again, and studied in connection with the most famous memorial towers of the old world. It is held that this is the only tower planned in America that can equal and perhaps surpass the memorial tower in Oxford, which is acknowledged to be the most beautiful architectural work at that university.

The proposed tower is to be forty feet square and 170 feet in height. The architectural treatment will be in the decorated Gothic style. The material will be native to New Jersey, only a steel gray tint being used. The trim will be whiter, a silvery gray Indiana limestone being employed.

Has Position in Springfield.

Miss Helen Wray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wray of Springfield, Mo., who recently visited in Maryville on her way to her new home from Springfield, Mass., has a position as stenographer to Attorney Harry Mitchell of Springfield. Mr. Mitchell is well known in Republican political circles in Missouri.

Dr. J. A. Hendricks of Burlington Junction was in the city today attending the Buffalo Bill show. Dr. Hendricks was a comrade of Buffalo Bill in the years when the noted scout was gaining fame. When Dr. Hendricks heard that Cody was going to visit Maryville he wrote him a letter and received the following reply:

"Dear Comrade: Will be glad to see you. Call at my tent on the show grounds. Your friend, Wm. Cody."

Mrs. Dwight Swinford and daughter, Ellen Jane, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swinford, and their grandson, Truman Pasch, of Arkoe, were among the circus crowd that was in town Friday.

Mrs. C. R. Garrett and her daughter, Mrs. Laura Ijems, of Macksberg, Ia., were in the city Friday on their way to Meadville, Mo., to visit Mrs. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Lizzie Riggles.

R. Hartley of Shenandoah was in Maryville Friday.

Met With Accident.

While Mrs. S. A. Collins and her sons, Albert and Wade Collins, and her brother, Albert Williams, and her daughter, Miss Mary Collins, who live southeast of Arkoe, were on their way to Maryville to attend the show, Friday morning, their team became frightened as they were passing in front of the Bank of Arkoe and whirled around, upsetting the buggy and breaking off two of the wheels. The occupants were thrown out excepting Albert Williams, who hung to the reins and was dragged some distance before the team stopped. No one was hurt, and the party got on the train at Arkoe and came on to Maryville.

Didn't See a Bad Road.

W. J. Hutton and family have returned from a trip in their car to Atlantic, Avoca and other Iowa towns. In their trip of 493 miles they had no accident of any kind and came across but two bridges that it was necessary to slow up on approaching. All other roads approaching the bridges were perfectly graded and made with a slight dip on each side so that the car could go on over without slacking in the least. Mr. Hutton says the roads are kept in perfect condition up there. "Eternal vigilance" seems to be the watchword of the road and bridge men.

Left for University.

Miss Mae Hotchkiss left Friday forenoon for Columbia, where she will attend the state university. She will specialize in domestic science. Miss Hotchkiss has been teaching in the Jennings school of St. Louis the past two years. She was delayed in starting to Columbia by an accident that befell her last Friday, when one of her feet was badly scalded while assisting in lifting a boiler of water from the stove. She had intended going several days sooner in company with Miss Nell Tobin of Burlington Junction, who is now in Columbia to attend the university.

Little Helps.

Where much fat is used in the food, the dishes are more or less greasy when to be washed. Have some newspaper handy and wipe out each dish before using the dishcloth; the paper can be burnt, and the dishwater will be much cleaner. If this is done, there will be no need of soap, provided the water is hot enough.

Lamp burners should be boiled in vinegar to which a pinch of soda has been added, and they will look like new. Wicks will give a better light if occasionally boiled in vinegar.

Brooms should be soaked in hot brine every week and hung up to dry, as this will make them last much longer. The brine softens the straws which otherwise get brittle.

It is said that cream of tartar will remove iron rust from cloth without injury to the daintiest fabric. Mix it with water to a paste, wet the spot and spread on the paste, hang the article in the sun and as fast as it dries, wet again until the rust disappears.

White lead is the most effective agent for mending broken crockery, as it will resist both heat and water; apply thinly on the edges of the broken pieces, press tightly together, binding to keep them in position, and set the article away for several weeks.

For cleaning the sink, bath tub, hand-wash basin, or other utensils that have become greasy, saturate a cloth with coal oil, and you will be pleased with the result. Soap will not remove such grease.

When cleaning oiled wood work, rub with a soft cloth dipped in coal oil. The oil does not dull the polish as soap and water would, and will remove the dirt. Used to clean and polish furniture, it should be well rubbed in the wood, as, if surplus oil is left on the surface, it will gather lint and dust. The odor will soon evaporate if doors and windows are left open.

Clean hot sand and sawdust rubbed into dark furs and then beaten out with a light rattan beater will clean and make them look like new. Ermine and other white furs should be treated similarly with plaster of paris and corn starch, which freshens and softens them. Coats, boas and collarettes may be treated the same.

Valuable brushes, such as those with ivory or tortoise shell backs, may be thoroughly cleaned by using bran instead of soap and water. Rub the bran in the bristles as you would soap, dipping the brush in the bran and rubbing, and when clean, the bran may be removed by tapping the brush, bristles downward, on the table. The back of the brushes should not be wet, and especially should the fastening of the bristles be kept dry.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Maryville Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Maryville. Follow the advice of a Maryville citizen and be cured yourself.

Mrs. A. Weidman, East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I had terrible pains in my kidneys and was also bothered by the kidney secretions. The contraction of a cold or a change in the weather was sure to increase my suffering. I used every remedy that I thought would help me, but met with indifferent success. I had about despaired of ever finding relief, when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and found them to be especially adapted to my case. I was soon free from all aches and pains and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have enjoyed excellent health since then and I know that my cure is a permanent one."

CONSERVATIVES WIN IN CANADA

Landslide Sweeps Liberal Government Out of Power.

CLOSE DOOR TO UNITED STATES

Result of Election Means Revised Basis of Trade With America Will Not Be Possible in Near Future. Seven Ministers Lose Seats.

Montreal, Sept. 22.—The Laurier government and reciprocity suffered an overwhelming defeat in the Canadian elections.

By a political landslide the Liberal majority of forty-three was swept away and the Conservative party secured one of the heaviest majorities, upwards of fifty, that any Canadian party has ever had. Seven cabinet ministers who had served with Premier Laurier were among the defeated candidates.

The Liberals lost ground in practically every province of the Dominion. Where they won their majorities were small. When the Conservatives won their majorities were tremendous. Ontario, the leading province of Canada, declared almost unanimously against the administration and reciprocity.

Robert L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, will shortly become the prime minister of Canada. He will be supported in parliament by a working majority of members far more than ample for his purpose.

The government defeat means that the Fielding Knox reciprocity agreement, ratified by the American congress in extra session, will not be introduced when the parliament assembles next month, and that a revised basis of trade with the United States, looking to closer commercial relations will not be possible in the immediate future. The Conservatives are committed to a policy of trade expansion within the empire and a closed door against the United States.

Although re-elected in two constituencies in Quebec, the defeat of the Liberal party also means the retirement from public life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who for nearly two decades has directed the destinies of the Dominion. Several times during the bitter campaign which preceded the election the venerable premier said that defeat of his party at the polls meant the end of his career; that he never would consent to lead a minority in opposition to a Conservative government.

A Liberal membership of fifty-three from Quebec was cut down to thirty-six, which, taken alone, seriously threatened the supremacy of the party. But it was in Ontario that the Conservatives won their greatest victories. Spurred on by appeals to patriotism and the cry that reciprocity was the entering wedge for annexation, the Conservatives swept nearly everything before them.

That province which in the last parliament was represented by thirty-five Liberals and fifty-one Conservatives, will send a delegation to the next composed of thirteen Liberals and seventy-five Conservatives. A notable feature of the defeat was the opposition's capture of two hitherto Liberal seats in Saskatchewan.

Taft Is Disappointed.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 22.—President Taft heard the returns from the Canadian elections here while attending a banquet given him by the citizens of this city.

"I am greatly disappointed," he said. "I had hoped that it would be put through to prove the correctness of my judgment that it would be a good thing for both countries. It takes two to make a bargain and if Canada declines we can still go on doing business at the old stand."

SPANISH STRIKE A FAILURE

Only a Few Workmen Out and Many Have Returned to Work.

Madrid, Sept. 22.—The general strike appears up to the present time to be even a greater failure than the authorities claimed it would be. Only a few workmen have gone out in Madrid, and not only have no new strikes broken out in the provinces, but many of those which were in operation have been stopped by the men's leaders.

New York, Sept. 22.—C. P. Rodgers, the latest starter in the coast to coast flight for the Hearst aviation prize, spent the night near Hancock, N. Ward, the aviator who preceded Rodgers in starting from New York in the same competition, was not able to leave the ground at Addison.

JUDGE GROSSCUP CHARGES THEFT

Says Papers Were Stolen from Office of Former Secretary.

WILL WITHHOLD RESIGNATION.

Announces That He Will Not Retire From Bench Until Threatened Charges Against Him Are Made and Answered.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Peter S. Grosscup, presiding judge of the United States circuit court of appeals for the Northern district of Illinois, announced that he will not send his resignation to President Taft until the threatened publication of charges and criticisms of his official career have been made and he has taken action to vindicate himself. The jurist declared he would invite a far-reaching investigation of his official conduct.

That a former government secret service agent, who is reported to have shadowed Judge Grosscup for two years, obtained important papers in the possession of Marshall E. Sampsell, former private secretary to the judge and one of the receivers of the Union Traction company by breaking into Sampsell's downtown office, was charged by Judge Grosscup and Mr. Sampsell.

Stolen Papers Photographed.

"I shall follow the course best calculated to vindicate my integrity before the public," said Judge Grosscup. "From what Mr. Sampsell told me, somebody must have robbed his office to get certain private papers, of which photographs were shown him. No one need loot my office, for I will show everything. They were trying to show a connection between him and me. He received $18,000 a year as receiver and if anyone can show he got more it will be a great surprise to me.

"When Theodore Roosevelt was president I remonstrated with him for putting a complaint against me in the files of the department of justice and said he had no more right to do that than I had to file a libel against him with the clerk of the court. Roosevelt said he must put it somewhere, and finally told me he had put it in with the nasty letters he received about himself."

Judge Grosscup declared that the published statement that the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals overruling the $29,000,000 fine in the Standard Oil company case was known in Wall street a day before it was read in court could not be substantiated.

TO PUSH OUSTER SUIT

Missouri Will Not Drop Case Against Harvester Combine.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 22.—At the request of the department of justice, Attorney General Major mailed to Washington a copy of his statement, brief and argument in the state's ouster suit against the International Harvester company. The company has been found guilty of violating the Missouri anti-trust law by a commissioner who heard the evidence and the case was submitted to the supreme court last April.

"The proposed reorganization of the International Harvester company, to conform to recent interpretations of the Sherman anti-trust law will not affect the Missouri case," said the attorney general. "The harvester company was organized in the same manner as the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and its organization cannot stand in the face of the decision of the supreme court of the United States in that case.

"The ouster suit was brought under the common law and the Missouri anti-trust law, which are broader than the Sherman law."

GENERAL TREPOFF.

Governor Who Issues Warning That Order Must Be Kept In Kiev.

PRESIDENT TAFT UPHOLDS HIS VETOES

Willing to Stake Political Future on Wisdom of Acts.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 22.—President Taft made his first speech of his western trip on the tariff and his vetoes of the wool, cotton and farmers' free list bills. The president attacked the Democrats and "insurgent" Republicans in the senate and house who put those bills through congress at the special session; defended his own course in vetoing them, and declared he was unalterably opposed to revision of tariff except on information secured by the tariff board.

He defined clearly his own position with regard to tariff revision and made it plain that even if political defeat stared him in the face he would not alter his policy. The president said that revision of the tariff with "blacksmith tools," such as he said the coalition of Democrats and "insurgents" used will lead inevitably to a revulsion of feeling and a recurrence of the higher rates and the "old system of high tariff."

"This," said the president, "I would deprecate and so far as I can, with the powers given me by the constitution, I propose to stop such a movement and to secure a reduction in accordance with the principles of the Republican platform and on information accurate and impartial. If that policy is not approved by the electorate, then, of course, those of us who are now in office must give way to men who will carry out a different policy, but while we are in office our position ought clearly to be understood. We follow this policy not only because we are pledged to it, but because we believe it right; because we believe that a full discussion and a close study on the part of people will convince them ultimately to approve and adopt it."

Crowe, beaten by men who did not sympathize with his "strong-arm flirtation," was taken to the hospital and later to a police station.

POLICE INTRIGUE IN RUSSIA

Scandalous Criminal Conduct in High Circles Rumored.

STOLYPIN KILLED BY A GUARD

Assassin Appointed by Director Kurloff to Protect Person of Premier. General Trepoff Prevents Escape of the Murderer.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—Full exposure of the scandalous criminal intrigues in high governmental circles leading to Premier Stolypin's secrifice are forbidden, says the Novoe Vremya, by patriotic reasons. The paper says that only a mere fraction of the findings of Minister of Justice Chtcheglovitoff, who is investigating the assassination of Premier Stolypin at Kiev, can ever be published.

Only General Trepoff's prompt measures in throwing a cordon about the theater and directing the work of the secret police, says the Vremya, prevented the escape of Bogroff from the hands of justice. Colonel Kuliabako made a strenuous, but unsuccessful, effort to have the prisoner kept at the secret police headquarters instead of the fortress. Had Trepoff surrendered Bogroff to Kuliabako, the paper declares, few details of the crime would ever have become known.

The inquiry into the assassination of Stolypin, with particular reference to the revolutionary and police elements involved, is being conducted by M. Chtcheglovitoff. Greater sensations than those so far published are promised. Vice Director of the Department of Police Verigin is under strong suspicion by the authorities, who hold he is, in a measure, responsible for the outrage.

Discord in Police Department.

The protection of the emperor and empress and the cabinet ministers at Kiev formed the subject of departmental discord. Governor General Trepoff demanded general oversight of the protective measures, but was overridden by the director of the department of police, M. Kurloff. Trepoff then tendered his resignation, which was not accepted. Kurloff, Verigin, Lieutenant Colonel Spiridovitch of the secret service police and Colonel Kuliabako, chief of the secret police, organized the protection, which cost $100,000.

While Verigin and Kurloff were at Kiev, on the eve of the emperor's visit, Dmitry Bogroff was consulted and given the responsible position of guarding the premier, as he promised to track suppositious terrorists, Nina Alexandrovna and Nicholas Jacovlivich. It is incomprehensible to those engaged in the inquiry how a subordinate, as Verigin was, dared to disregard Stolypin's circular regarding revolutionary spies and allow Bogroff, a spy and an informer, to guard the premier without setting other agents to watch him.

Governor General Trepoff has issued a public notice that disorders will not be tolerated, and stringent regulations are published forbidding the carrying of arms.

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until mentsruation ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

They're Comin' Back to Missouri.

They're comin' back to Missouri; they're crossing on the bridge; you can see their mover wagons on top of every ridge. On the highways and the turn pikes, you can hear their wagons hum; for they're comin' back to Missouri and they're comin' on the run. Who's comin' back to Missouri? Why, the migratory crowd who left the state some months ago, with grumblin' long and loud, and they said by the Eternal they never would come back to this Missouri land infernal where the landlord would exact the products of their toil.

But they've loaded up the children, and they've whistled for the dogs; tied a cow behind the wagon, to the butcher sold the hogs; hitched the pony to the schooner, turned her brow towards the east—toward state of Missouri, toward a land of fat and feast. From the northland and the lakes, to the far off ocean shore, we shall find no better domain though we hunt the country o'er. Yonder there are tales of woe, where the hot winds blast and burn, or the floods may ebb and flow, when we want it to be dry—or the sun so fiercely scorch, when we wish a cloudy sky. So they're humping back to Missouri; they're crossing on the bridge; you can see the mover wagons on the top of every ridge.—Exchange.

Not Libelous.

"I would like to know, senator, whether this is a libelous article?" one of the Washington correspondents asked Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi.

"What did you say about the man?" asked the Mississippi solon, running his eye down the page of manuscript devoted to the shortcomings of a brother senator who has gained for himself a rather generous share of unpopularity.

"Why, I guess the worst thing I said about him was that he is a cross between a buzzard and a hyena" replied the newspaper man.

"Libelous? No, I should say not," exclaimed Williams; "there ain't no such animal."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

SECOND AS COAL PRODUCING STATE

West Virginia held second rank among the great coal-producing states in 1910, being exceeded in output by Pennsylvania only. The United States geological survey has just made public a report by Edward W. Parker, coal statistician, giving the total production for West Virginia in 1910 as 61,671,019 short tons.

West Virginia, says Mr. Parker, may now be considered firmly established in second place among the coal producing states, though its big lead over Illinois in 1910 was due to abnormal conditions and may not be repeated for several years. The most influential feature of the coal mining industry in 1910 was the strike in states of the middle west, which put West Virginia's rival, Illinois, at a decided disadvantage, most of the larger mines of the latter state being completely shut down, while West Virginia got the benefit. The effect of the strike, as shown by the statistics of production in Illinois and West Virginia, was a decrease in the output of the Illinois mines from 50,904,990 short tons, in 1909 to 45,898,846 short tons in 1910, whereas the production of West Virginia increased from 51,849,220 short tons to 61,671,019 tons, a gain of 9,821,799 tons, or 18.9 per cent. The value of the West Virginia production increased from $44,661,716 in 1909 to $56,665,061, a gain of $12,003,345, or 26.88 per cent.

In spite of the fact, however, that the output of West Virginia exceeded that of Illinois by 15,772,173 tons, and of the further fact that West Virginia's gain in value was considerably more in proportion than the gain in tonnage, the total value of the West Virginia product exceeded that of Illinois by only $4,261,434. Two reasons exist for this. In the first place mining rates are higher in Illinois than in West Virginia, and a higher price is necessary. But what makes the higher price possible is, in the second place, the great advantage possessed by Illinois in the large manufacturing industries within the state or in immediately adjoining territory.

CREEDS OF THE BELLS.

How sweet the chime of Sabbath bells!
Each one its creed in music tells,
In tones that float upon the air,
As soft as song, as pure as prayer;
And I will put in simple rhyme
The language of the golden chime,
My happy heart with rapture swells
Responsive to the bells—sweet bells.

"In deeds of love excel—excel"
Chimed out from ivied towers a bell;
"This is the church not built on sands,
Emblem of one not built with hands;
Its forms and sacred rites revere;
Come worship here—come worship here;
Its rituals and faith excel—excel,"
Chimed out the Episcopalian bell.
"O, heed the ancient landmarks well,"
In solemn tones exclaimed a bell;
"No progress made by mortal man
Can change the just, eternal plan.
With God there can be nothing new;
Ignore the false, embrace the true
While all is well—is well—is well,"
Pealed out the good old Dutch church bell.

"O swell, ye purifying waters, swell,"
In mellow tones rang out a bell;
"Though faith alone in Christ can save,
Man must be plunged beneath the wave,
To show the world unfaltering faith
In what the sacred Scripture saith.
O swell, ye rising waters, swell,"
Pealed out the clear-toned Baptist bell.

"Not faith alone, but works as well,
Must test the soul," said a soft bell;
"Come here, and cast aside your load,
And work your way along the road,
With faith in God, and faith in man,
And hope in Christ, where hope began;
Do well—do well—do well—do well,"
Pealed forth the Unitarian bell.

"Farewell! farewell! base world, farewell,"
In gloomy tones exclaimed a bell;
"Life is a boon to mortal given,
To fit the soul for bliss in heaven.
Do not invoke the avenging rod;
Come here, and learn the way to God.
Say to the world farewell! farewell!"
Pealed out the Presbyterian bell.

"In after life there is no hell!"
In raptures rang a cheerful bell;
"Look up to heaven this holy day,
Where angels wait to lead the way;
There are no fires, no fiends to blight
The future life; be just, do right.
No hell! no hell! no hell! no hell!"
Rang out the Universalist bell.

"To all the truth we tell—we tell,"
Shouted in ecstacies a bell.
"Come all ye weary wanderers, see!
Our Lord has made salvation free.
Repent! believe! have faith! and then
Be saved, and praise the Lord. Amen.
Salvation's free we tell—we tell,"
Shouted the Methodistic bell.

Say, Have You Ever

Bought any coal from Frank G. Shoemaker and had it delivered with the big white wagon? Those white wagons don't make a bad appearance on the streets of the city do they? And the horses look like they had enough to eat too. So do the drivers. The scales and yards are kept up in the same way, and that system of doing business makes it a legitimate mercantile business, like any other business of the city, and worthy of your patronage if prices and coals are right, and they are—because I am behind every pound of coal sold. If it is not right I will see that all is satisfactory or money refunded. Let me figure with you for your winter coal.

STREETS TO BE LIGHT

NEARLY 1,000 ADDITIONAL ELECTRIC LIGHTS TO BE PLACED.

RED AND WHITE AT STORES

Purple and Yellow Decorations Used at St. Joseph Will Be Used on the Streets.

Maryville's downtown streets are to be placed in first class condition for the street fair, from October 9 to 14, and decorations and a number of electric lights will be used that week. At a meeting of the committee Thursday evening it was decided that streamers of electric lights be used for eight blocks. Each one will contain twenty lights, and there will be six streamers to a block. With all of these lights the downtown portion of the city will be as light as in the daytime.

The streets where the lights will be used will be around the square, a block west on Third street, a block south on Main, a block north on Main, and a block west on Fourth.

In decorating the streets it was decided that the colors of purple and yellow will be used for street decorations, as all of the decorations and pennants necessary can be secured from the St. Joseph horse and stock show management. The St. Joseph show is next week. All of the store decorations are to be red and white.

Another donated to the public wedding that is to take place during fair week. J. A. Kavanaugh of Graham, who is the owner of an automobile, said Friday morning that he would bring any couple that lives near Graham to Maryville and back on that day if they will be married at the fair. This is equal to a gift of $8.

All of the free attractions for the fair have been secured except a few. The list of the attractions will be published in the next day or so.

ABOUT THAT PETRIFIED STORY IN PAPERS

(Skidmore New Era.)

Nearly every paper of Northwest Missouri the last three weeks has contained one or more articles describing the wonderful three-foot petrified alligator which was unearthed in a rock quarry near Graham, on a high piece of ground, 100 yards or more from any branch, creek or river. Just how the saurian reptile, hundreds of years ago, came to leave its home in the warm and sunny swamps of Florida and became a wanderer on the bleak hills of Northwest Missouri, the writers of the stories have not attempted to tell us; all they know is that the poor petrified form was dug up from its quiet resting place in a rock quarry near Graham.

The truth of the story is this: A few days ago some workmen, near Graham, did dig up a rock which in form somewhat resembled, to the imaginary mind, a young alligator, and then after applying a little paint for eyes, nostrils and some coloring for the back it made a fairly good specimen for a petrified crocodile, and this is the way the story started.

You have no doubt all read the little poem of "The Three Black Crows," describing the awful predicament of the man who "threw up" the three black crows. But on investigation it was found that a man did "throw up" something which his neighbors said was as black as a crow. It is wonderful how things grow by being told a few times.

MISS MARY NOBLE DIED IN KANSAS

Miss Mary Noble, daughter of Judge M. D. Noble, who formerly lived in the Platte river community east of Maryville, died at the family home in Coleridge, Kan., Thursday morning.

Burial will take place in Miriam cemetery following their arrival. Their old friends and acquaintances are requested to meet them here.

ASKS DAMAGES FOR PERSONAL INJURIES

HANGING TO STRAPS

A DIFFICULT FEAT WHEN THERE ARE NO STRAPS.

THE ROAD TO COLUMBIA

Students at University Found the Way Was Long and the Going Bad.

Why is a strap hanger? He isn't when he trusts himself to the tender mercies of the Wabash, because the straps, they ain't.

When Maryville's rearguard left for Columbia to attend the university they first purchased tickets and then boarded the train. When the conductor came through he took each ticket, punched it five times and then handed it back. All along the way other students boarded the train until by the time Brunswick was reached the car was packed with passengers and wedged in between and piled on top were suitcases, bandboxes, shoeboxes, umbrellas and various sundry articles.

Every one was chased off the train at Brunswick, and before the last passengers were off some men came into the rear end of the car with brooms and actually began to sweep out the dirt. In about thirty minutes the train from Kansas City pulled in and a grand rush was made to board it, as it was already crowded to the extent of about three persons for every seat. The jam caused by the efforts of all to be the first one on the train was a hat smashing, side punching, face scratching time. A very simple method of making headway under such conditions is as follows: Make a quarter turn toward the big man who is trying to crowd past you, and give him several vicious jabs in the shortribs with your elbow. While he is collecting his thoughts slip your suitcase in front of his knees and then with a ratchet motion of the arms start forward by raising first one foot and then the other and setting it down in front of the one left behind. If the man's corns are tender progress is simpler and much more rapid.

Once inside the car the art of strap hanging was put to shame. All those who possessed such an article as a hooked nose, prominent chin or strong teeth could very easily and comfortably suspend themselves from the chandeliers so long as they lasted. After that the only alternative was to stand on someone else's feet, only someone else generally did the standing. A small number of experienced university men tried to browbeat the porter into letting them into the parlor car, but were unsuccessful. They were joined by the professional grouch, who howled about his rights, first class ticket, and a test case, and whose anger knew no bounds when a fair, winsome miss walked boldly into the said car while the porter kowtowed, scraped and rushed to carry her baggage through the crowded day coach for her.

The tickets were again taken up, punched twice, and again handed back. At Moberly a number succeeded in getting seats, but the packing soon became worse, if such were possible.

The last stage of the journey was begun after a wait of some fifteen minutes in Centralia on the far-famed train which, as has been said of it, "is so ashamed of itself that it backs into Columbia." With three more vicious punches of the tickets they were taken away from us forever, and by jumps and jerks our destination was reached at 8:30 p. m. Here the crowd broke up, the old ones hurrying at once to their lodgings and the new ones wandering nervously around until piloted away by friends or unsympathizing sophs.

The Maryville fans who are planning to attend the Missouri-Kansas game at Columbia may place their bets on the Tigers with a feeling of certainty not felt in former years. Tuesday, Sept. 19, there were fifty-three candidates for the Missouri eleven in practice on Rollins field, and they show themselves the best material from which to pick a team, seen in many years. Coach Brewer is wading right into the work and driving his men to the full extent, and they should be whipped into shape in a very short time.—Herschel Colbert.

Mrs. J. King and daughter, Isabel, of Devil's Lake, N. D., who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Kirch and family, went to Clyde Friday to visit her brother, Fred Kroutch, and old friends before returning to their home. Mrs. King and Mrs. Kirch returned a few days ago from a visit at Louisiana, Mo., with their sister.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Shopping Party at "Dick's."

A shopping party in D. E. Hotchkin's variety store Friday morning attracted a good deal of attention. Artists, and some other folks, maybe, would have said it was a picturesque company, and so it would have been viewed at a distance. But, lawsy, up within a foot or two it was a bunch of sixteen raw, greasy, smelly Indians, dressed in gay, gaudy Indian fashion, buying thread, colored glasses, and chuckling and nudging one another occasionally at some bright trinket that pleased them or soberly grunting with satisfaction when they found what they wanted. Chief Iron Tail was along with the crowd, and was the grimest, most dignified looking one of the lot. He didn't look pleased about anything None of the old Indians did. Mr. Hotchkin and his assistants had all they could do while their visitors were there, moving quickly and silently about and picking up everything they admired. One Indian consented to talk a little and give the names of those with him, and spelled them out if the name was not understood. His name is Johnnie Mixlong. He said, "The big tall fellah in brown, he's name is One Horse. He our inter—p-re-ta." The other are Bennie Makinhorse, Summa Back, Edward Eagle Elk, Sam Mable, Iskey Two Dog, Willie Poor Bear, Eagle Bear, Shod Bear, Eagle Bull, Running Bear, Sam Lone Bear, Strike Plenty, Iron White Man and Chief Iron Tail."

Johnnie Mixlong was asked: "Where is your home?"

"Pine Ridge, in ee Black Heels, Sou Dakota," he replied.

"What do you do?"

"I cowboy."

"How many cattle do you care for?"

"Sousand. Sometimes sree sousand."

"What do you do in Buffalo Bill's show?"

"I jump, I holler, I run, I ride horse."

"You just make believe you are on the warpath?"

"Yeh."

"Did you ever go on the warpath in real earnest?"

"Yeh."

"Did you ever kill anybody?"

"Were you glad about it?"

"Yeh."

"Would yo go on the warpath again?"

"No."

"Why?"

"I go church fourteen year."

"What church do you belong to?"

"Presapateerean."

Then Dick Hotchkin said:

"You are all right. That's what I am."

"My brother is Epeescopelian and my sisters they Baptees," said Johnnie.

"Where did you go to school?"

"No school."

"Who taught you to read and write and speak English?"

"White cowboy."

"Do you like to travel with Buffalo Bill?"

"Yes. I see things."

Johnnie Mixlong had evidently been studying the up-to-date girl's coiffure and millinery. He had his hair in biscuit rolls by his ears, and two strands of silver and white beads were laid gracefully across his Madonna parted hair, while the long fringe ends of the strands were wound around his ears with telling effect. It was beautiful, girls! At the back of his head, at the proper angle, was a huge bunch of brilliantly colored tail feathers, fastened on somehow, and nodding and nodding bewitchingly, so that his profile was exactly like the new bonnet hats that poke out behind and are on display in the upest millinery stores. And he had on the most exquisitely bead embroidered moccasins and leggings you ever saw.

Dew Drop Inn Club.

The Dew Drop Inn club met Wednesday, Sept. 20, at the home of Mrs. Oliver Jones, north of the city. In spite of the inclemency of the weather a very profitable and enjoyable meeting was held. Papers were read on the "Rural School Problem" and "What Should Be Done for Betterment of Our Schools?" also "How Create an Interest in the Work," followed by a discussion by the members. Mrs. Claud Moore, Mrs. Harry Farrar, Mrs. Albert Orme, Mrs. Elmer Baker and the hostess, Mrs. Oliver Jones, were the members present. One visitor was present, Mrs. Culbertson of Maryville, and the children were Masters Kermit Moore and Wendell Jones, Misses Mildred and Velma Jones. Luncheon was served by the hostess, and the club adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Charles Stafford.

Picnic and Basket Dinner.

The M. E. church, South, Sunday school will hold a picnic and basket dinner at the Normal park on Saturday afternoon. All of the members and friends of the Sunday school and church are invited.

Her Daughter's Birthday.

Mrs. R. G. Sanders has issued invitations for Saturday afternoon to a party in celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Marian.

A WEDDING DRESS OVER 100 YEARS OLD

A wedding dress skirt that is now 110 years old, is on display in the window of the Eversole dry goods store, by Mrs. Frank G. Shoemaker. The dress was worn by Mrs. Shoemaker's grandmother, whose maiden name was Jemima Wykoff of New York, who was the greataunt of Mrs. Horace F. Leet of this city. Jemima Wykoff spun and wove the beautiful white material of her wedding gown and embroidered it. It is a full round skirt of four widths. The deep embroidery seems to be the pattern of an acorn, and is so finely done that not a thread of it can be detected on the under side.

Jemima Wykoff was married to John O'Hara, a descendant of General O'Hara, who was detailed by Lord Cornwallis to deliver his sword to General George Washington on his surrender to the American army. Lord Cornwallis was too deeply stung by the defeat of the English army, it is said by historians, to do the job himself. Four men of the O'Hara family married four women of the Wykoff family. Jemima O'Hara died twenty years ago at the age of 90 years.

30,000 BUSHELS ON THE GRISBY PLACE

The Skidmore New Era says this week of a big apple deal that was consummated last week:

A big apple deal was consummated Friday whereby W. M. Howard purchased the entire crop of apples grown this year on the W. W. Grigsby 110-acre orchard, estimated at 30,000 bushels.

This is the largest and one of the best orchards in the county or this part of the state. The varieties are among the best sellers on the market, and the quality cannot be surpassed in the entire state. Some of the leading varieties in this orchard have been pronounced by expert apple men to be the best block of apples they have seen this year, if not the best they ever saw any year.

EAR OF CORN 28 ROWS WITH 1600 GRAINS

J. W. Linville of Skidmore has an ear of corn from his farm, near that town, that has twenty-eight rows and 1,600 grains. Mr. Linville has some good corn and his crop this year will be a good one. J. W. Holt, who lives near Maryville, has an ear of corn that has 1,300 grains, and he wanted to know if anyone could beat it in the county. Linville's corn takes the record so far.

Known by Their Company.

It is an undisputed fact that a young man is known by the company he keeps. This is just as true of the young boy, for the company the boy seeks shows what the young man is very apt to be unless something should happen to turn him in another direction. It is not necessary that the company should be rich and finely dressed, or live in a fine house; because the boy that has to "shift for himself," and often for others, is many times the best of his kind, if he shifts the right way. A clean moraled boy, thoughtful and earnest and desiring to make the most of himself must not choose low, immoral or idle boys for companions. If you reach up, you will be able to climb.

Miss Maud Hubbell and Miss Birda Daniels of Barnard were in Maryville Friday to attend the show.

CROWDS FOR SHOW

EARLY TRAINS FRIDAY BROUGHT LARGE NUMBERS OF PEOPLE.

NO STREET PARADE GIVEN

Buffalo Bill's Farewell Tour Meets Enthusiastic Welcome From This Section.

Several thousand people from the country and towns surrounding Maryville were attracted to the city today by Buffalo Bill's wild west and Pawnee Bill's far east. All of the morning trains were jammed, and then the coaches could not hold the crowd.

No street parade was given this morning by the show, but many were heard to say that in view of the fact that there was no parade the crowds on the street between 10 and 12 o'clock were much larger than they had expected.

On the occasion of his retirement Col. Cody has made almost exhaustive efforts to present an entertainment of extraordinary merit, combining a world's story.

Buffalo Bill's wild west and Pawnee Bill's far east in combination contain more singular specialized talent and a greater number of strange diversified human exhibits in healthy, yet native, natural and interesting actions than was ever before presented in a single performance to an audience at one time.

STREET OPENING TO COMMENCE SOON

City Engineer F. L. Flint and Engineer Murphy, representing the Wabash, were measuring and laying off Ninth street Friday. The new street is to go to the Normal property and will connect with a road there which goes to the building. Work on the opening of this street will commence in a few days. The street has been badly needed for some time, and the news that it will be opened soon will be well received.

Came From Illinois.

Mrs. S. Wilson of Stronghurst, Ill., arrived in Maryville Thursday evening on a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Green. This is the first visit these sisters have had together in fourteen years.

Clearmont People in Town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clary, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bush, Miss Nora Bush, Byron C. Sowers were among the visitors in town Friday from Clearmont.

Mum is the word. Judge Grosscup says if the newspapers and magazine are going to find fault with him he won't resign after all.

Attorney General Wickersham has invented a new method of busting trusts by agreement, and it seems to be entirely satisfactory to the trusts.

Hon. E. W. Stephens of Columbia seems to be in the lead for first member of the capitol commission. Mr. Stephens is a good man anywhere you put him, and if the commission is made up of as good men all the way through, Missouri will need to have no fear of getting a capitol that all will be proud of.

The President told the people at Grand Rapids why he vetoed the tariff bills. He says he is for tariff revision but not yet. He says in effect that although the constitution makes it the duty of Congress to prepare and pass tariff bills, and notwithstanding the fact that Congress has been doing this for a hundred years, it is not now capable of doing this work. He has appointed a bunch of clerks to get up one "scientifically," and it must be scientific before he will sign it. The President could have saved words by saying he doesn't intend to sign any bill that lowers the duties on protected articles.

"Well, what is it?" demanded the head of the firm. "I hope you're not going to ask me for another raise of salary."

"No," replied the young man; "I am going to ask you for something much more important than that. I wish to ask for your daughter's hand in marriage."

"Um. You consider her more important than a raise of salary, do you?"

"Yes, sir, far more important."

"Then you can't have her. I should be ashamed to have such a boob as you in my family."—Exchange.

MEMORIAL TOWER FOR CLEVELAND

A beautiful tower, without doubt the finest of its kind in this country, is soon to be erected within the grounds of the University of Princeton, N. J., as a tribute to the memory of the late Grover Cleveland.

The movement to erect this memorial, and the collection of the funds necessary to complete it, was under the leadership of ex-Senator John F. Dryden, a man of broad sympathies and patriotism, who, while of opposite political faith, is a great admirer of the many virtues of Mr. Cleveland. An official report shows $197,175.43 to have been collected by public subschiptions for this work.

The design of the tower, as now decided upon, is the eleventh or twelfth submitted by the architect, the details having been worked over again and again, and studied in connection with the most famous memorial towers of the old world. It is held that this is the only tower planned in America that can equal and perhaps surpass the memorial tower in Oxford, which is acknowledged to be the most beautiful architectural work at that university.

The proposed tower is to be forty feet square and 170 feet in height. The architectural treatment will be in the decorated Gothic style. The material will be native to New Jersey, only a steel gray tint being used. The trim will be whiter, a silvery gray Indiana limestone being employed.

Has Position in Springfield.

Miss Helen Wray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wray of Springfield, Mo., who recently visited in Maryville on her way to her new home from Springfield, Mass., has a position as stenographer to Attorney Harry Mitchell of Springfield. Dr. J. A. Hendricks of Burlington Junction was in the city today attending the Buffalo Bill show. Dr. Hendricks was a comrade of Buffalo Bill in the years when the noted scout was gaining fame. When Dr. Hendricks heard that Cody was going to visit Maryville he wrote him a letter and received the following reply:

"Dear Comrade: Will be glad to see you. Call at my tent on the show grounds. Your friend, Wm. Cody."

First Week in October

Met With Accident.

While Mrs. S. A. Collins and her sons, Albert and Wade Collins, and her brother, Albert Williams, and her daughter, Miss Mary Collins, who live southeast of Arkoe, were on their way to Maryville to attend the show, Friday morning, their team became frightened as they were passing in front of the Bank of Arkoe and whirled around, upsetting the buggy and breaking off two of the wheels. The occupants were thrown out excepting Albert Williams, who hung to the reins and was dragged some distance before the team stopped. No one was hurt, and the party got on the train at Arkoe and came on to Maryville.

Didn't See a Bad Road.

W. J. Hutton and family have returned from a trip in their car to Atlantic, Avoca and other Iowa towns. In their trip of 493 miles they had no accident of any kind and came across but two bridges that it was necessary to slow up on approaching. All other roads approaching the bridges were perfectly graded and made with a slight dip on each side so that the car could go on over without slacking in the least. Mr. Hutton says the roads are kept in perfect condition up there. "Eternal vigilance" seems to be the watchword of the road and bridge men.

Left for University.

Miss Mae Hotchkiss left Friday forenoon for Columbia, where she will attend the state university. She will specialize in domestic science. Miss Hotchkiss has been teaching in the Jennings school of St. Louis the past two years. She was delayed in starting to Columbia by an accident that befell her last Friday, when one of her feet was badly scalded while assisting in lifting a boiler of water from the stove. She had intended going several days sooner in company with Miss Nell Tobin of Burlington Junction, who is now in Columbia to attend the university.

HER HAIR GREW.

That's Why a Thankful Woman Recommends Parisian Sage.

The Koch Pharmacy will sell you a fifty-cent bottle of Parisian Sage and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back. It's a delightful hair dressing that makes hair lustrous and fascinating.

"In the spring I was recovering from a severe case of erysipelas, which left me virtually bald on the front of my head and next to my ears. The hair kept coming out rapidly and nothing I used stopped my getting entirely bald, until I used to bottles of Parisian Sage. This tonic made my hair start to grow in and, in fact, grew me a good fair amount of hair, and it has entirely stopped my hair falling out.

It is with pleasure that I give a public recommend to Parisian Sage, which I know is a wonder."—Mrs. Ella Gilchrist, W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa.

Little Helps.

Where much fat is used in the food, the dishes are more or less greasy when to be washed. Have some newspaper handy and wipe out each dish before using the dishcloth; the paper can be burnt, and the dishwater will be much cleaner. If this is done, there will be no need of soap, provided the water is hot enough.

Lamp burners should be boiled in vinegar to which a pinch of soda has been added, and they will look like new. Wicks will give a better light if occasionally boiled in vinegar.

Brooms should be soaked in hot brine every week and hung up to dry, as this will make them last much longer. The brine softens the straws which otherwise get brittle.

It is said that cream of tartar will remove iron rust from cloth without injury to the daintiest fabric. Mix it with water to a paste, wet the spot and spread on the paste, hang the article in the sun and as fast as it dries, wet again until the rust disappears.

White lead is the most effective agent for mending broken crockery, as it will resist both heat and water; apply thinly on the edges of the broken pieces, press tightly together, binding to keep them in position, and set the article away for several weeks.

For cleaning the sink, bath tub, hand-wash basin, or other utensils that have become greasy, saturate a cloth with coal oil, and you will be pleased with the result. Soap will not remove such grease.

When cleaning oiled wood work, rub with a soft cloth dipped in coal oil. The oil does not dull the polish as soap and water would, and will remove the dirt. Used to clean and polish furniture, it should be well rubbed in the wood, as, if surplus oil is left on the surface, it will gather lint and dust. The odor will soon evaporate if doors and windows are left open.

Clean hot sand and sawdust rubbed into dark furs and then beaten out with a light rattan beater will clean and make them look like new. Ermine and other white furs should be treated similarly with plaster of paris and corn starch, which freshens and softens them. Coats, boas and collarettes may be treated the same.

Valuable brushes, such as those with ivory or tortoise shell backs, may be thoroughly cleaned by using bran instead of soap and water. Rub the bran in the bristles as you would soap, dipping the brush in the bran and rubbing, and when clean, the bran may be removed by tapping the brush, bristles downward, on the table. The back of the brushes should not be wet, and especially should the fastening of the bristles be kept dry.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

You Will Make No Mistake if You Follow This Maryville Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stubborn cases in Maryville. Follow the advice of a Maryville citizen and be cured yourself.

Mrs. A. Weidman, East Thompson street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I had terrible pains in my kidneys and was also bothered by the kidney secretions. The contraction of a cold or a change in the weather was sure to increase my suffering. I used every remedy that I thought would help me, but met with indifferent success. I had about despaired of ever finding relief, when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Charles A. Love's drug store and found them to be especially adapted to my case. I was soon free from all aches and pains and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have enjoyed excellent health since then and I know that my cure is a permanent one."

CONSERVATIVES WIN IN CANADA

Landsilde Sweeps Liberal Government Out of Power.

CLOSE DOOR TO UNITED STATES

Result of Election Means Revised Basis of Trade With America Will Not Be Possible in Near Future. Seven Ministers Lose Seats.

Montreal, Sept. 22.—The Laurier government and reciprocity suffered an overwhelming defeat in the Canadian elections.

By a political landslide the Liberal majority of forty-three was swept away and the Conservative party secured one of the heaviest majorities, upwards of fifty, that any Canadian party has ever had. Seven cabinet ministers who had served with Premier Laurier were among the defeated candidates.

The Liberals lost ground in practically every province of the Dominion. Where they won their majorities were small. When the Conservatives won their majorities were tremendous. Ontario, the leading province of Canada, declared almost unanimously against the administration and reciprocity.

Robert L. Borden, leader of the Conservative party, will shortly become the prime minister of Canada. He will be supported in parliament by a working majority of members far more than ample for his purpose.

The government defeat means that the Fielding-Knox reciprocity agreement, ratified by the American congress in extra session, will not be introduced when the parliament assembles next month, and that a revised basis of trade with the United States, looking to closer commercial relations will not be possible in the immediate future. The Conservatives are committed to a policy of trade expansion within the empire and a closed door against the United States.

Although re-elected in two constituencies in Quebec, the defeat of the Liberal party also means the retirement from public life of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who for nearly two decades has directed the destinies of the Dominion. Several times during the bitter campaign which preceded the election the venerable premier said that defeat of his party at the polls meant the end of his career; that he never would consent to lead a minority in opposition to a Conservative government.

A Liberal membership of fifty-three from Quebec was cut down to thirty-six, which, taken alone, seriously threatened the supremacy of the party. But it was in Ontario that the Conservatives won their greatest victories. Spurred on by appeals to patriotism and the cry that reciprocity was the entering wedge for annexation, the Conservatives swept nearly everything before them.

That province which in the last parliament was represented by thirty-five Liberals and fifty-one Conservatives, will send a delegation to the next composed of thirteen Liberals and seventy-five Conservatives. A notable feature of the defeat was the opposition's capture of two hitherto Liberal seats in Saskatchewan.

Taft Is Disappointed.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 22.—President Taft heard the returns from the Canadian elections here while attending a banquet given him by the citizens of this city.

"I am greatly disappointed," he said. "I had hoped that it would be put through to prove the correctness of my judgment that it would be a good thing for both countries. It takes two to make a bargain and if Canada declines we can still go on doing business at the old stand."

SPANISH STRIKE A FAILURE

Only a Few Workmen Out and Many Have Returned to Work.

Madrid, Sept. 22.—The general strike appears up to the present time to be even a greater failure than the authorities claimed it would be. Only a few workmen have gone out in Madrid, and not only have no new strikes broken out in the provinces, but many of those which were in operation have been stopped by the men's leaders.

Rodgers Advances Ninety-five Miles.

New York, Sept. 22.—C. P. Rodgers, the latest starter in the coast to coast flight for the Hearst aviation prize, spent the night near Hancock, N. Y., having gotten ninety-five miles nearer his goal in flying from Middletown, N. Y. He flew the distance in seventy-eight minutes. James J. Ward, the aviator who preceded Rodgers in starting from New York in the same competition, was not able to leave the ground at Addison.

JUDGE GROSSCUP CHARGES THEFT

Says Papers Were Stolen from Office of Former Secretary.

WILL WITHHOLD RESIGNATION.

Announces That He Will Not Retire From Bench Until Threatened Charges Against Him Are Made and Answered.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Peter S. Grosscup, presiding judge of the United States circuit court of appeals for the Northern district of Illinois, announced that he will not send his resignation to President Taft until the threatened publication of charges and criticisms of his official career have been made and he has taken action to vindicate himself. The jurist declared he would invite a far-reaching investigation of his official conduct.

That a former government secret service agent, who is reported to have shadowed Judge Grosscup for two years, obtained important papers in the possession of Marshall E. Sampsell, former private secretary to the judge and one of the receivers of the Union Traction company by breaking into Sampsell's downtown office, was charged by Judge Grosscup and Mr. Sampsell.

Stolen Papers Photographed.

"I shall follow the course best calculated to vindicate my integrity before the public," said Judge Grosscup. "From what Mr. Sampsell told me, somebody must have robbed his office to get certain private papers, of which photographs were shown him. No one need loot my office, for I will show everything. They were trying to show a connection between him and me. He received $18,000 a year as receiver and if anyone can show he got more it will be a great surprise to me.

"When Theodore Roosevelt was president I remonstrated with him for putting a complaint against me in the files of the department of justice and said he had no more right to do that than I had to file a libel against him with the clerk of the court. Roosevelt said he must put it somewhere, and finally told me he had put it in with the nasty letters he received about himself."

Judge Grosscup declared that the published statement that the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals overruling the $29,000,000 fine in the Standard Oil company case was known in Wall street a day before it was read in court could not be substantiated.

TO PUSH OUSTER SUIT

Missouri Will Not Drop Case Against Harvester Combine.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 22.—At the request of the department of justice, Attorney General Major mailed to Washington a copy of his statement, brief and argument in the state's ouster suit against the International Harvester company. The company has been found guilty of violating the Missouri anti-trust law by a commissioner who heard the evidence and the case was submitted to the supreme court last April.

"The proposed reorganization of the International Harvester company, to conform to recent interpretations of the Sherman anti-trust law will not affect the Missouri case," said the attorney general. "The harvester company was organized in the same manner as the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and its organization cannot stand in the face of the decision of the supreme court of the United States in that case.

"The ouster suit was brought under the common law and the Missouri anti-trust law, which are broader than the Sherman law."

GENERAL TREPOFF.

Governor Who Issues Warning That Order Must Be Kept In Kiev.

PRESIDENT TAFT UPHOLDS HIS VETOES

Willing to Stake Political Future on Wisdom of Acts.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 22.—President Taft made his first speech of his western trip on the tariff and his vetoes of the wool, cotton and farmers' free list bills. The president attacked the Democrats and "insurgent" Republicans in the senate and house who put those bills through congress at the special session; defended his own course in vetoing them, and declared he was unalterably opposed to revision of tariff except on information secured by the tariff board.

He defined clearly his own position with regard to tariff revision and made it plain that even if political defeat stared him in the face he would not alter his policy. The president said that revision of the tariff with "blacksmith tools," such as he said the coalition of Democrats and "insurgents" used will lead inevitably to a revulsion of feeling and a recurrence of the higher rates and the "old system of high tariff."

"This," said the president, "I would deprecate and so far as I can, with the powers given me by the constitution, I propose to stop such a movement and to secure a reduction in accordance with the principles of the Republican platform and on information accurate and impartial. If that policy is not approved by the electorate, then, of course, those of us who are now in office must give way to men who will carry out a different policy, but while we are in office our position ought clearly to be understood. We follow this policy not only because we are pledged to it, but because we believe it right; because we believe that a full discussion and a close study on the part of people will convince them ultimately to approve and adopt it."

POLICE INTRIGUE IN RUSSIA

Scandalous Criminal Conduct in High Circles Rumored.

STOLYPIN KILLED BY A GUARD

Assassin Appointed by Director Kurloff to Protect Person of Premier. General Trepoff Prevents Escape of the Murderer.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—Full exposure of the scandalous criminal intrigues in high governmental circles leading to Premier Stolypin's secrifice are forbidden, says the Novoe Vremya, by patriotic reasons. The paper says that only a mere fraction of the findings of Minister of Justice Chtchegloviteff, who is investigating the assassination of Premier Stolypin at Kiev, can ever be published.

Only General Trepoff's prompt measures in throwing a cordon about the theater and directing the work of the secret police, says the Vremya, prevented the escape of Bogroff from the hands of justice. Colonel Kuliabako made a strenuous, but unsuccessful, effort to have the prisoner kept at the secret police headquarters instead of the fortress. Had Trepoff surrendered Bogroff to Kuliabako, the paper declares, few details of the crime would ever have become known.

The inquiry into the assassination of Stolypin, with particular reference to the revolutionary and police elements involved, is being conducted by M. Chtcheglovitoff. Greater sensations than those so far published are promised. Vice Director of the Department of Police Verigin is under strong suspicion by the authorities, who hold he is, in a measure, responsible for the outrage.

Discord in Police Department.

The protection of the emperor and empress and the cabinet ministers at Kiev formed the subject of departmental discord. Governor General Trepoff demanded general oversight of the protective measures, but was overridden by the director of the department of police, M. Kurloff. Trepoff then tendered his resignation, which was not accepted. Kurloff, Verigin, Lieutenant Colonel Spiridovitch of the secret service police and Colonel Kuliabako, chief of the secret police, organized the protection, which cost $100,000.

While Verigin and Kurloff were at Kiev, on the eve of the emperor's visit, Dmitry Bogroff was consulted and given the responsible position of guarding the premier, as he promised to track suppositious terrorists, Nina Alexandrovna and Nicholas Jacovlitvich. It is incomprehensible to those engaged in the inquiry how a subordinate, as Verigin was, dared to disregard Stolypin's circular regarding revolutionary spies and allow Bogroff, a spy and an informer, to guard the premier without setting other agents to watch him.

Governor General Trepoff has issued a public notice that disorders will not be tolerated, and stringent regulations are published forbidding the carrying of arms.

MILD, GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR WOMEN GIVEN FREE

So many of the ills of women are due to habitual constipation, probably because of their false modesty on the subject, that their attention cannot be too strongly called to the importance of keeping the bowels open. It is always important to do that, regardless of the sex, but it is especially important in women.

From the time the girl begins to menstruate until mentsruation ceases she has always vastly better prospects of coming through healthy if she watches her bowel movements. If you find yourself constipated, with bad breath, pimply complexion, headaches, belching gas and other symptoms of indigestion and constipation, take a small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is woman's favorite laxative. You will find that you can do away with salts, strong cathartics, etc., which are entirely unsuited to woman's requirements.

Mrs. Katherine Haberstroh of McKees Rocks, Pa., and Mrs. A. E. Herrick of Wheeler, Mich., who was almost paralyzed in her stomach and bowels, are now cured by the use of this remedy. A free sample bottle can be obtained by addressing Dr. Caldwell, and after you are convinced of its merits buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

For the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If you have dandruff, or if your hair is turning gray or coming out, don't delay, but get a bottle of this remedy today, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

They're Comin' Back to Missouri.

They're comin' back to Missouri; they're crossing on the bridge; you can see their mover wagons on top of every ridge. On the highways and the turn pikes, you can hear their wagons hum; for they're comin' back to Missouri and they're comin' on the run. Who's comin' back to Missouri? Why, the migratory crowd who left the state some months ago, with grumblin' long and loud, and they said by the Eternal they never would come back to this Missouri land infernal where the landlord would exact the products of their toil.

But they've loaded up the children, and they've whistled for the dogs; tied a cow behind the wagon, to the butcher sold the hogs; hitched the pony to the schooner, turned her brow towards the east—toward state of Missouri, toward a land of fat and feast. From the northland and the lakes, to the far off ocean shore, we shall find no better domain though we hunt the country o'er. Yonder there are tales of woe, where the hot winds blast and burn, or the floods may ebb and flow, when we want it to be dry—or the sun so fiercely scorch, when we wish a cloudy sky. So they're humping back to Missouri; they're crossing on the bridge; you can see the mover wagons on the top of every ridge.—Exchange.

Not Libelous.

"I would like to know, senator, whether this is a libelous article?" one of the Washington correspondents asked Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi.

"What did you say about the man?" asked the Mississippi solon, running his eye down the page of manuscript devoted to the shortcomings of a brother senator who has gained for himself a rather generous share of unpopularity.

"Why, I guess the worst thing I said about him was that he is a cross between a buzzard and a hyena" replied the newspaper man.

"Libelous? No, I should say not," exclaimed Williams; "there ain't no such animal."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

SECOND AS COAL PRODUCING STATE

West Virginia held second rank among the great coal-producing states in 1910, being exceeded in output by Pennsylvania only. The United States geological survey has just made public a report by Edward W. Parker, coal statistician, giving the total production for West Virginia in 1910 as 61,671,019 short tons.

West Virginia, says Mr. Parker, may now be considered firmly established in second place among the coal producing states, though its big lead over Illinois in 1910 was due to abnormal conditions and may not be repeated for several years. The most influential feature of the coal mining industry in 1910 was the strike in states of the middle west, which put West Virginia's rival, Illinois, at a decided disadvantage, most of the larger mines of the latter state being completely shut down, while West Virginia got the benefit. The effect of the strike, as shown by the statistics of production in Illinois and West Virginia, was a decrease in the output of the Illinois mines from 50,904,990 short tons, in 1909 to 45,898,846 short tons in 1910, whereas the production of West Virginia increased from 51,849,220 short tons to 61,671,019 tons, a gain of 9,821,799 tons, or 18.9 per cent. The value of the West Virginia production increased from $44,661,716 in 1909 to $56,665,061, a gain of $12,003,345, or 26.88 per cent.

In spite of the fact, however, that the output of West Virginia exceeded that of Illinois by 15,772,173 tons, and of the further fact that West Virginia's gain in value was considerably more in proportion than the gain in tonnage, the total value of the West Virginia product exceeded that of Illinois by only $4,261,434. Two reasons exist for this. In the first place mining rates are higher in Illinois than in West Virginia, and a higher price is necessary. But what makes the higher price possible is, in the second place, the great advantage possessed by Illinois in the large manufacturing industries within the state or in immediately adjoining territory.

CREEDS OF THE BELLS.

How sweet the chime of Sabbath bells!
Each one its creed in music tells,
In tones that float upon the air,
As soft as song, as pure as prayer;
And I will put in simple rhyme
The language of the golden chime,
My happy heart with rapture swells
Responsive to the bells—sweet bells.

"In deeds of love excel—excel"
Chimed out from ivied towers a bell;
"This is the church not built on sands,
Emblem of one not built with hands;
Its forms and sacred rites revere;
Come worship here—come worship here;
Its rituals and faith excel—excel,"
Chimed out the Episcopalian bell.
"O, heed the ancient landmarks well,"
In solemn tones exclaimed a bell;
"No progress made by mortal man
Can change the just, eternal plan.
With God there can be nothing new;
Ignore the false, embrace the true
While all is well—is well—is well,"
Pealed out the good old Dutch church bell.

"O swell, ye purifying waters, swell,"
In mellow tones rang out a bell;
"Though faith alone in Christ can save,
Man must be plunged beneath the wave,
To show the world unfaltering faith
In what the sacred Scripture saith.
O swell, ye rising waters, swell,"
Pealed out the clear-toned Baptist bell.

"Not faith alone, but works as well,
Must test the soul," said a soft bell;
"Come here, and cast aside your load,
And work your way along the road,
With faith in God, and faith in man,
And hope in Christ, where hope began;
Do well—do well—do well—do well,"
Pealed forth the Unitarian bell.

"Farewell! farewell! base world, farewell,"
In gloomy tones exclaimed a bell;
"Life is a boon to mortal given,
To fit the soul for bliss in heaven.
Do not invoke the avenging rod;
Come here, and learn the way to God.
Say to the world farewell! farewell!"
Pealed out the Presbyterian bell.

"In after life there is no hell!"
In raptures rang a cheerful bell;
"Look up to heaven this holy day,
Where angels wait to lead the way;
There are no fires, no fiends to blight
The future life; be just, do right.
No hell! no hell! no hell! no hell!"
Rang out the Universalist bell.

"To all the truth we tell—we tell,"
Shouted in ecstacies a bell.
"Come all ye weary wanderers, see!
Our Lord has made salvation free.
Repent! believe! have faith! and then
Be saved, and praise the Lord. Amen.
Salvation's free we tell—we tell,"
Shouted the Methodistic bell.

Say, Have You Ever

Bought any coal from Frank G. Shoemaker and had it delivered with the big white wagon? Those white wagons don't make a bad appearance on the streets of the city do they? And the horses look like they had enough to eat too. So do the drivers. The scales and yards are kept up in the same way, and that system of doing business makes it a legitimate mercantile business, like any other business of the city, and worthy of your patronage if prices and coals are right, and they are—because I am behind every pound of coal sold. If it is not right I will see that all is satisfactory or money refunded. Let me figure with you for your winter coal.

Yours truly,

F. G. SHOEMAKER, Sr.
